The Molina Waterfalls and The Forest of Giazza

The town of Molina has the typical aspect of a calm medieval village, where the buildings were built according to the typical architecture of the Lessinia . The park area has waterfalls, small waterfalls, small lakes, and a luxuriant vegetation. Look out for the famous swing hung over the waterfall. Some wooden climbing structures are scattered in the area as well, for the adventure seekers.

great for walks and admiring nature.

Eating:

The great thing about this area, other than its obvious beauty, is definitely the food. Ask us about Agriturismo in the mountains that specialise in local traditional dishes, that will grantee to complete the experience.

We suggest calling in advance, and more important when your there, let the owners recommend the dishes.

These are small places and usually do not except any type of “plastic”, so make sure you have cash with you.
