Bassano del grappa

The most densely populated city of the Veneto region. Bassano del grappa, is divided by the Brenta River.

The city has an impressive artistic heritage, a marvellous mixture of Renaissance and Baroque, which can be seen in the numerous tourist sites: the Loggia del Podestà, the Convent of St Francesco, the Parolini Gardens, the Ponte Vecchio wooden bridge, the Palazzotto Montevicchio and Monte di Pietà, the Porta delle Grazie....

The gastronomic traditions of Bassano del Grappa feature specialties made with Asparagus and Baccala, but above all, the town is known for its Grappa.

Close to Bassano del Grappa is the Parco delle Grotte Oliero where one can visit the Covolo degli Assassini and the Covolo delle Sorelle by boat.
